

Privacy Statement

Green Maritime respects your right to privacy and we take our related legal obligations seriously.

We aim to be transparent to you about our treatment of your information.

Our commitment

1. We comply with applicable privacy and data protection laws and regulatory frameworks.
2. We treat all Confidential Information as confidential and do not disclose the same to a third party.
3. We only ask you for personal information that is relevant to us supplying you with our services.
4. We only use your personal information to supply, improve and manage our services.
5. We ensure that all Confidential Information shall only be disclosed to officers, employees, contractors, legal advisers and accountants on a need to know basis. We do not give your personal information to our suppliers without your permission.
6. We do not use the Confidential Information other than is necessary for the purpose of performing our commitments or exercising our rights.
7. We ask for your permission to take photos or video which may include you but you will never be named if these are then used on our website or in any of our promotional materials. You are given the opportunity to opt out before photos are taken.
8. We will not share personally identifiable information with unrelated third parties for their own use without your consent.
9. We take appropriate steps to safeguard your information in accordance with industry standards. But no system can be guaranteed as completely secure and there is an inherent risk in transmitting information over the internet. It may be possible for an unrelated party to intercept or access such transmissions unlawfully. We protect against this as far as is possible. Please be aware that any information you do transmit to us is at your own risk.
10. We will only keep your information for as long as we need it. This may be for:
 1. providing you with a service
 2. improving our services and
 3. for legal and audit purposes.
11. We aim to give you control over the information we hold about you by enabling you to access, update and delete your information in-line with your legal rights.

Copyright, Photography and Audiovisual and other Recording

In the course of our work we frequently make photographic, digital, video or film records on the basis that such records are only ever used for our legitimate business purposes.

At no time will the identity of the person in a photograph be available without the prior consent of that individual.

However, should you or any other person nominated by you be of the view that any such recording or image of you/them is being used by us in a manner which you/they feel is inappropriate or objectionable, you/they may request us to cease to use that image in such a manner.

Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This agreement and any non-contractual obligations arising from or in connection with this agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English law. Each party irrevocably agrees that the English courts shall have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute or claim arising from or in connection with this agreement (including both contractual and non-contractual disputes or claims) and waives any objection to proceedings in such courts on the grounds of venue or on the grounds that proceedings have been brought in an inappropriate forum.

If you have any questions or comments about this statement or our approach to privacy please contact us at enquiries@greenmaritime.co.uk